

WUES May Newsletter

May 2017

West Union Elementary Students Promote Being Drug Free

On Friday, May 12th, West Union Elementary students partnered with the Adams County Sheriffs Department in promoting being drug free. A special thanks to the Sheriffs Department for providing shirts for all of our students.

Hero Award

On Thursday, May 18th, Sheriff Kimmy Rogers recognized 4th grader James Haas for his heroic actions. In April, James acted quickly during an emergency involving his sister. His sister, Hailyann Muth's clothes caught on fire after she fell into a bonfire. James immediately responded to this dangerous situation and had her stop, drop and roll. According to physicians and family members, his quick response likely saved her from more serious injuries. The staff and students at WUE are extremely proud of you James!

Kindergarten and 6th Graders Recognized

On Monday, May 15th parents, grandparents and other friends and family came to the school to celebrate the kindergarten students being promoted to 1st grade. The students performed several songs to a packed house before being recognized for their outstanding accomplishment. On May 18th, 6th grade students were recognized before their peers and parents and grandparents. Students were given various awards that highlighted student's achievement. Congratulations to all kindergarten and 6th grade students.

West Union Elementary Volunteer Banquet

The success of any school is largely dependent on help from the community. West Union Elementary has been blessed with numerous community members stepping up to help our in a variety of ways. On Monday, May 8th we recognized those individuals at our 1st Volunteer Banquet. Volunteers were treated to a catered meal, were recognized for their service and a very enlightening speech from board member Charlie Bess. We truly appreciate all that you do for our students.

6th Grade Visit

On May 2nd, WUES 6th graders visited WUHS. During the visit, students from WUHS gave tours of the facilities, answered students questions and gave students an idea of what to expect as they make the transition to WUHS. WUHS administration also discussed expectations and exciting new opportunities as the students move on to WUHS for the 2017-2018 school year.

Students at WUE were able to enjoy a carnival as part of the year end PBIS Incentive. Students were able to purchase tickets with Dragon Bucks that had been earned throughout the year and were able to earn tickets when a teacher recognized them as being responsible, being respectful or being safe. Students were also given additional tickets for exceptional attendance during the 4th nine weeks. A special thanks to Mrs. McAdow and Mrs. Stricklett for planning and decorating for this event.

WUE PBIS Carnival

